

Brexit, Post-Brexit Europe and the V4: Potential Impacts, Interests, and Perception

Brexit, Post-Brexit Europe and the V4

Potential Impacts, Interests, and Perceptions

ÚSTAV
MEZINÁRODNÍCH VZTAHŮ
PRAHA

INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
PRAGUE

supported by

• Visegrad Fund

Partners

Ministry of Foreign Affairs
of the Czech Republic

supported by

• Visegrad Fund

Brexit, Post-Brexit Europe and the V4: Potential Impacts, Interests, and Perception

Brexit, Post-Brexit Europe and the V4

Potential Impacts, Interests, and Perceptions

PROGRAMME

TUESDAY 13. MARCH

VENUE:

16:00 – 18:30

Introduction: Ondřej Horký-Hlucháň, Deputy Director for Research, Institute of International Relations.

Presentation:

Balázs Szent-Iványi, Aston University, Birmingham, UK.

Vít Beneš, Institute of International Relations and Metropolitan University Prague, Czech Republic.

Tadeusz Chabiera, War Studies University, Warsaw, Poland.

Matúš Mišík, Comenius University, Bratislava, Slovakia.

András Tétényi, Corvinus University, Budapest, Hungary.

Discussion:

Aleš Chmelař, State Secretary for European Affairs, Government Office, Prague.

Monika Brusenbauch Meislová, Department of Politics and European Studies, Palacký University, Olomouc.

Jakub Utěšený, Head of Office of Deputy Minister, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Prague.

18:30 – 19:30

Reception and glass of wine

Brexit, Post-Brexit Europe and the V4: Potential Impacts, Interests, and Perception

Partners of the conference

Ministry of Foreign Affairs
of the Czech Republic

Contacts

Ústav mezinárodních vztahů, v. v. i.

Nerudova 3

118 50 Praha 1 - Malá Strana

www.iir.cz

Email: conference@iir.cz