

General Sponsor of the Conference:

Czech-Korean Conference

Prague, Monday 21st June 2010, 10.00 – 16.30

International conference organized by:

Institute of International Relations, Prague
Institute of Foreign Affairs and National Security (IFANS), Seoul

Venue:

Mirror Hall

Czernin Palace, Ministry of Foreign Affairs
Loretánské nám. 5, CZ-118 00 Prague 1 – Hradčany

Working language: English

09.30 – 10.00 Registration

10.00 – 10.30 Opening Ceremony Opening Speeches

- Hynek Kmoníček, Czech Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic
- Soon Chun Lee, Chancellor, Institute of Foreign Affairs and National Security (IFANS), Seoul
- Petr Drulák, Director, Institute of International Relations (IIR), Prague

10.30 – 12.00 PANEL 1: Relations between the Republic of Korea and Czech Republic

Chair: Rudolf Fürst, Research Fellow, Institute of International Relations (IIR), Prague

- Jun Hae Won, Assistant Professor of the Department of European and African Studies, IFANS:

Korean-Czech bilateral ties

- Michal Vodrážka, University of California, San Diego, KDI School of Public Policy and Management, Seoul:

Surging Tiger, Sleepy Lion: 20 years of Czech – South Korean Relations

Discussions:

- Ko Jae Nam, Professor and Director-General of the Department of European and African Studies, IFANS
- Vladimír Beroun, University of Economics, Prague, Seoul National University

12.00 – 13.00 Lunch Break

13.00 – 14.20 PANEL 2: Korean Security Issues

Chair: Ko Jae Nam, Professor and Director-General of the Department of European and African Studies, IFANS

- Soon Chun Lee, Chancellor, IFANS:
The Korean Peninsula and its Security Issues
- Choi Kang, Professor and Director-General of the Department of American Studies, IFANS:
Issues and Concerns in and around the Korean Peninsula

Discussions:

- Vít Střítecký, Research Fellow, Institute of International Relations (IIR), Prague
- Nikola Hynek, Research Fellow, Institute of International Relations (IIR), Prague

14.20-14.40 Coffee Break

14.40– 16.00 PANEL 3: Czech Republic and EU Foreign Policy

Chair: Choi Kang, Professor and Director-General of the Department of American Studies, IFANS

- Mats Braun, Research Fellow, Institute of International Relations (IIR), Prague:
The EU's global role-changes and challenges with the Lisbon Treaty
- Petr Pavlík, University of Economics, Prague:
Czech economic transformation and EU accession process

Discussions:

- Ko Jae Nam, Professor and Director-General of the Department of European and African Studies, IFANS
- Jun Hae Won, Assistant Professor of the Department of European and African Studies, IFANS

16.00-16.30 Final Briefing and Concluding Remarks

- Ambassador of the Czech Republic: Jaroslav Olša jr.
- Ambassador of the Korean Republic: Gabriel Oh

16.30 Glass of Wine

Due to the necessary security measures during the entrance to the MFA building and the limited number of seats in the conference room, we kindly ask you to register to the conference via the e-mail address conference@iir.cz by Thursday 17th June 2010 at the latest.