

China's One Belt One Road Initiative and Central Europe

Wednesday, 23 March 2016

IIR, Nerudova 3, Prague 1

Let us cordially invite you, on behalf of the organizers, the Institute of European Studies, the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (CASS), Beijing and the Institute of International Relations, Prague to the seminar "China's One Belt One Road Initiative and Central Europe".

Programme

09:30 – 10:00 Registration

10:00 – 11:30 Panel I: OBOR and V4 States

Opening remarks: Prof. Liu Zuokui, CASS

Dr. Ondřej Horký- Hlucháň, Head of Research Department, IIR (tbc)

Prof. Liu Zuokui, CASS: How Chinese Perceive V4 and China-V4 Relations

Prof. Kong Tianping, CASS: The Belt and Road Initiative and its Implication for Cooperation between China and Visegrad States

Prof. Tian Dewen, CASS: The Belt and Road Initiative in Chinese New Diplomatic Framework

Dr. Ma Junchi, CASS: Comparative Studies on the China-V4 Relations and German-V4 Relations

Dr. Alice Rezková, AMO: What Can CEE and China Learn from Each Other in Innovation?

11:30 – 12:00 Lunch

12:00 – 14:00 Panel II: OBOR and Czech-Chinese Bilateral Relations

Prof. Cui Hongjian, CASS: The Role and Potential of the Czech Republic in the Development of China-Europe Relations

Dr. Vilém Semerák, UK, CERGE-EI: One Belt, One Road – the Czech Perspective

Dr. Rudolf Fürst: CEE-China Relations Updated: Czechs Going Prominent?

Dr. Ju Weiwei, CASS: Economic Cooperation Between China and the Czech Republic: Fields and Ways

Discussion and closing remarks